III. ORDERED that all persons and entities are notified that, subject to the other provisions of 11 U.S.C. §362, the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. §362(a) operate as a stay of:

- A. the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative or other proceeding against LBI that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of this proceeding, or to recover a claim against LBI that arose before the commencement of this proceeding;
- B. the enforcement against LBI or against property of the estate of a judgment obtained before the commencement of this proceeding;
- C. any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or property from the estate;
- D. any act to create, perfect or enforce any lien against property of the estate;
- E. any act to create, perfect or enforce against property of LBI any lien to the extent that such lien secures a claim that arose before the commencement of this proceeding;
- F. any act to collect, assess or recover a claim against LBI that arose before the commencement of this proceeding;
- G. the setoff of any debt owing to LBI that arose before the commencement of this proceeding against any claim against LBI; and

IV. ORDERED that all persons and entities are stayed, enjoined and restrained from directly or indirectly removing, transferring, setting off, receiving, retaining, changing, selling, pledging, assigning or otherwise disposing of, withdrawing or interfering with any assets or property owned, controlled or in the possession of LBI, including but not limited to the books and records of LBI, and customers' securities and credit balances, except for the purpose of effecting possession and control of said property by the Trustee.

V. ORDERED that pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(2)(B)(i), any pending bankruptcy, mortgage foreclosure, equity receivership or other proceeding to reorganize, conserve or liquidate LBI or its property and any other suit against any receiver, conservator or trustee of LBI or its property, is stayed.

VII. ORDERED that, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(2)(C)(ii), and notwithstanding 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(2)(C)(i), all persons and entities are stayed for a period of twenty-one (21) days, or such other time as may subsequently be ordered by this Court or any other court having competent jurisdiction of this proceeding, from foreclosing on, or disposing of, securities collateral pledged by LBI, whether or not with respect to one or more of such contracts or agreements, securities sold by LBI under a repurchase agreement, or securities lent

VIII. ORDERED that the stays set forth in paragraphs three – six shall not apply to:

- E. the exercise of a contractual right of any “repo” participant, as defined in 11 U.S.C. §101, to use cash to cause the liquidation of a repurchase agreement, pursuant to which LBI is a purchaser of securities, whether or not such repurchase agreement meets the definition set forth in 11 U.S.C. §101(47); or
- F. the exercise of a contractual right, as such term is used in 11 U.S.C. §555, in respect of (i) any extension of credit for the clearance or settlement of securities transactions or (ii) any margin loan, as each such term is used in 11 U.S.C. §741(7), by a securities clearing bank, or the exercise of a contractual right as such term is used in 11 U.S.C. §556 in respect of any extension of credit for the clearance or settlement of commodity contracts by a commodity broker as defined in 11 U.S.C. §101(6). INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

ORDERED that, with respect to claims relating to, or net equities based upon, securities of a class and series of an issuer which are ascertainable from the books and records of the Debtor or are otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Trustee, the Trustee shall have the authority to deliver securities of such class and series, if and to the extent available to satisfy such claims in whole or in part, with partial deliveries to be made pro rata to the greatest extent considered practicable by the Trustee; and it is further

ORDERED that the Trustee shall use the following procedure for those claims for protection as a customer of the Debtor, as defined in SIPA, which are not allowed as filed:

- (1) The Trustee will notify the claimant that the Trustee has determined that the claimant's claim has been disallowed in whole or in part or has otherwise not been approved for satisfaction as filed. Notification shall be in a form similar to the Notice of Determination of Claim, attached as Exhibit D hereto. If a claimant is aggrieved by the determination of the Trustee, the claimant shall be afforded the opportunity to have the matter heard by the court as a contested matter under Rule 9014 of the Bankruptcy Rules, consistent with the procedures set forth herein.
- (2) The claimant shall request a hearing before this court by filing a request in accordance with the instructions included with the Trustee's determination. The claimant shall file the request with the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with local rules, and serve upon the Trustee's counsel, Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, NY 10004, Attention: LBI Hearing Request, within thirty days of the date on which the Trustee mailed his determination. statement of the reasons for the claimant's objection to the Trustee's determination; (iii) copies of any document or other writing upon which the claimant relies; and (iv) mailing, phone, and email contact information for the claimant.

- (3) The Trustee shall ask the Court to set a time and date for a hearing and shall notify the claimant in writing of the time, date and place of the hearing. The Trustee may, upon the advice and consent of SIPC, establish such other procedures for adjudication of claims as in his discretion leads to the most efficient and orderly administration of the claims process for all claimants without further order of this Court.
- (4) If a claimant fails to request a hearing within thirty days of the mailing of the Trustee's determination in accordance with the procedures established by this Court's order, or if the claimant fails to appear at the hearing, then the Trustee's determination shall be final.

ORDERED that the Trustee shall have the authority to compromise and settle any disputed customer claim at any time, with the approval of SIPC, without further order of this Court; and it is further

ORDERED that any claim of a customer for net equity which is received by the Trustee after the expiration of a sixty (60) day time period beginning on the date of publication of the Notice of Commencement need not be paid or satisfied in whole or in part out of customer property, and, to the extent such claim is satisfied from monies advanced by SIPC, it shall be satisfied in cash or securities (or both) as the Trustee determines is most economical to the estate; and it is further

ORDERED that based on the December 1, 2008 mailing date for the Notice of Commencement, the bar date for all claims is June 1, 2009 and the bar date for receiving the maximum possible protection for customer claims under SIPA is January 30, 2009; and it is further

ORDERED that claims against the Debtor in this proceeding shall be filed with the Trustee through the Trustee's claims agent, Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC at: Lehman Brothers Inc. Claims Processing, c/o Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC, FDR Station, P.O. Box 5015, New York, NY 10150-5015; and it is further

ORDERED that a meeting of customers and creditors will take place on December 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time), at the New York Marriott Downtown, 85 West Street, New York, New York 10006; and it is further ORDERED that the Trustee shall file his first report pursuant to 78fff-1(c) of SIPA within six (6) months after publication of the Notice of Commencement, and shall file interim reports every six (6) months thereafter.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT THE TRUSTEE'S COUNSEL, KAREN M. CHAU, ESQ., AT (212) 837-6512.

TO THE HONORABLE SHELLEY C. CHAPMAN,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

James W. Giddens (the “Trustee”), as Trustee for the liquidation of the business of Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LBI”) under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa et seq. (“SIPA”),¹ by and through his undersigned counsel, respectfully represents as follows:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The Trustee files this one hundred ninety-ninth omnibus objection to general creditor claims (the “One Hundred Ninety-Ninth Omnibus Objection to General Creditor Claims”) pursuant to section 502(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), as made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to sections 78fff(b) and 78fff-1(a) of SIPA, Rule 3007(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and this Court’s order approving procedures for the filing of omnibus objections to general creditor claims filed in this SIPA proceeding (the “General Creditor Claim Objection Procedures Order,” ECF No. 5441), seeking disallowance and expungement of the claims listed on Exhibit A annexed hereto. The Trustee’s proposed order (the “Proposed Order”) is annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

2. The proofs of claim identified on Exhibit A (collectively, the “No Liability Claims” or the “Claims”) are claims by purported former employees based on allegations of employment discrimination, wrongful termination, and/or similar employment-related purported wrongdoing. None of these Claims have merit. Therefore, the Trustee requests that these Claims be disallowed and expunged in their entirety.

JURISDICTION

3. Following removal to this Court for all purposes as required for SIPA cases by section 78eee(b)(4) of SIPA, this Court has “all of the jurisdiction, powers, and duties conferred by [SIPA] upon the court to which application for the issuance of the protective decree was made.” 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(4).

4. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to SIPA section 78eee(a)(3) and 15 U.S.C. section 78aa.

BACKGROUND

5. On September 19, 2008 (the “Filing Date”), the Honorable Gerard E. Lynch, United States District Court, Southern District of New York, entered the Order Commencing Liquidation of LBI (the “LBI Liquidation Order,” ECF. No. 1) pursuant to the provisions of SIPA in the case captioned Securities Investor Protection Corporation v. Lehman Brothers Inc., Case No. 08-CIV-8119 (GEL). The LBI Liquidation Order, inter alia, (i) appointed the Trustee for the liquidation of the business of LBI pursuant to section 78eee(b)(3) of SIPA; and (ii) removed the case to this Court for all purposes as required for SIPA cases by section 78eee(b)(4) of SIPA, in the case captioned In re Lehman Brothers Inc., Case No. 08-01420 (JMP) (the “SIPA Proceeding”).

6. On November 7, 2008, the Court entered the Order Approving Form and Manner of Publication and Mailing of Notice of Commencement; Specifying Procedures and Forms for Filing, Determination, and Adjudication of Claims; Fixing a Meeting of Customers and Other Creditors; and Fixing Interim Reporting Pursuant to SIPA (the “Claims Process Order,” ECF No.

241). Beginning on December 1, 2008, consistent with SIPA section 78fff-2(a)(1), the Trustee mailed more than 905,000 claims packages with filing information to former LBI customers and other potential claimants (the “Claims Process Notice”) and posted claims filing information on the Trustee’s website (www.lehmantrustee.com) and SIPC’s website (www.sipc.org). The Trustee also published notice of the claims process in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal and The Financial Times.

7. Pursuant to SIPA section 78fff-2(a)(3) and the Claims Process Order, customer claims seeking maximum protection under SIPA must have been received by the Trustee on or before January 30, 2009. All customer claims and general creditor claims must have been received by the Trustee by June 1, 2009 and no claims of any kind will be allowed unless received by the Trustee on or before June 1, 2009 (the “Pre-Filing Bar Date”). In addition to the Pre-Filing Bar Date, on September 19, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the “Administrative Bar Date Order”) that established October 31, 2013 (the “Administrative Bar Date”) as the deadline to file a proof of claim for administrative expense claims against the LBI estate, as further described in the Administrative Bar Date Order, with respect to such administrative expenses arising between September 19, 2008 and August 31, 2013. The Administrative Bar Date has now passed. A copy of the Claims Process Order was made publicly available at www.lehmantrustee.com. The Trustee’s website allowed claimants filing electronically to upload documents as part of their claim submission and thereby comply with the instructions to include supporting documentation set forth in the Proof of Claim.

8. On November 15, 2012, the Court entered the General Creditor Claim Objection Procedures Order, which authorizes the Trustee, among other things, to file omnibus objections to no more than 200 general creditor claims at a time, on various grounds, including the grounds that the claims subject to the omnibus objection seek recovery of amounts for which LBI is not liable.

THESE CLAIMS SHOULD BE DISALLOWED AND EXPUNGED

9. A filed proof of claim is “deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). If an objection refuting at least one of the claim’s essential allegations is asserted, the claimant has the burden to demonstrate the validity of the claim. See In re Oneida Ltd., 400 B.R. 384, 389 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Adelphia Commc’ns Corp., Ch. 11 Case No. 02-41729 (REG), 2007 Bankr. LEXIS 660, at *15 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 20, 2007); In re Rockefeller Ctr. Props., 272 B.R. 524, 539 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2000). Moreover, section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a claim may not be allowed to the extent that “such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

10. Based on analysis by the Trustee’s counsel of each of the Claims listed in Exhibit A, the Trustee has identified the Claims as claims for which LBI is not liable, as there is no legal and/or factual basis for a claim against LBI. Each of the Claims is based on allegations of employment discrimination, wrongful termination, and/or similar employment-related purported wrongdoing. The Trustee’s counsel has determined that LBI has no liability for the Claims because, as set forth in Exhibit A, the employment actions at issue were lawful and/or that the Claims are not legally viable because the Claims have been settled, released, and/or are procedurally improper.²

11. A claim without merit does not result in a claim against, or a right to payment from, LBI. Therefore, the Trustee requests that the Claims listed on Exhibit A be disallowed and expunged in their entirety.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

12. The Trustee reserves all rights to object to any Claim or any portion of any Claim for which the Court does not grant the relief requested herein.

NOTICE

13. Notice of this One Hundred Ninety-Ninth Omnibus Objection to General Creditor Claims has been provided to (i) each claimant listed on Exhibit A via overnight mail; and (ii) the list of parties requesting notice of pleadings in accordance with the Court's Amended Order Pursuant to Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1015(c) and 9007 Implementing Certain Notice and Case Management Procedures and Related Relief entered by the Court on July 13, 2010 (ECF No. 3466), and will be immediately available for inspection upon filing with the Court at the Trustee's website, www.lehmantrustee.com. The Trustee submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

2. The Claims may be objectionable on a number of additional grounds. The Trustee reserves all rights to object on any other basis to the Claims or any portion of the Claims for which the Court does not grant the relief requested herein.

NO PRIOR RELIEF REQUESTED

14. No previous request for the relief requested herein has been made by the Trustee to this or any other Court.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated herein, the Trustee respectfully requests entry of an order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just.

CREDITOR MARY ORTEGON'S [CLAIM # 4546] RESPONSE TO THE TRUSTEE'S
ONE HUNDRED NINETY-NINTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO GENERAL CREDITOR CLAIMS (NO LIABILITY CLAIMS)

Mary Annette Ortegon ("Ortegon"), a creditor in the above captioned bankruptcy proceeding, hereby objects to the Trustee's One Hundred Ninety-Ninth Omnibus Objection to General Creditor Claims (No Liability Claims) (Doc. 8154) filed on January 28, 2014, which seeks to disallow her claim [Claim #4546] for breach of a written, fully executed contract involving a $350,000 guaranteed bonus that Lehman Brothers Inc. ("LBI" or the "Debtor") promised to pay her for calendar year 2007. The contract at issue, drafted by LBI, contained a defined set of circumstances involving "cause" under which LBI was permitted to cancel the bonus. Because none of the enumerated grounds for "cause" existed in relation to Ortegon's termination from LBI, LBI was not permitted to cancel the bonus, which remains due and owing to Ortegon. Accordingly, Ortegon's claim against the Debtor is valid and should be permitted to proceed.

ARGUMENT

1. In January 2007, after a rigorous interview process, which lasted over the course of a month, LBI extended an offer of employment to Ortegon as a Business Chief Administrative Officer in its Fixed Income Division. Throughout the interview process, Ortegon informed LBI of her upcoming participation, beginning in January 2007, in an Executive MBA program operated by the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University (the “EMBA” program).¹ Before Ortegon’s start date at LBI, she was called into a meeting with Danielle Coppola, LBI’s Vice President of Fixed Income Human Resources (“Coppola”) and Mohammad Grimeh, LBI’s Managing Director, Head of Emerging Markets Business (“Grimeh”), and was informed that her job offer and employment contract (which she had executed on January 16, 2007) had been rescinded due to her participation in the EMBA program, despite the fact that Ortegon had offered to defer her enrollment in the program.

2. Ortegon suspected that she was terminated because LBI discovered that she had filed charges with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) against two prior employers, SBC Capital Markets, Inc. and HSBC Securities, for gender discrimination. Ortegon filed these suits under her maiden name, which LBI discovered on January 16, 2007, when Ortegon filled out her pre-employment paperwork. In 2008, Ortegon filed a charge of retaliation with the EEOC against LBI based on her suspicions.

3. When LBI extended Ortegon a job offer, it provided her with an employment contract (the “Contract”), which it prepared, and which was signed by Coppola on January 12, 2007.² In addition to specifying a yearly salary of $150,000, the Contract also provided that Ortegon would be guaranteed a “minimum bonus in the amount of $350,000, less applicable deductions, payable at the time the Firm pays its annual 2007 bonus distribution (on or about January 31, 2008).” (Contract at 1). Furthermore, the Contract included the following conditions upon which the bonus would not be payable:

The foregoing salary will be paid for all periods of your active employment with the Firm [LBI] in performance year 2007. The bonus amount set forth above will be paid at the time and in the amount stated except that it will not be payable if you have failed to obtain and/or maintain in good standing all applicable licenses and registrations or if, before the date of scheduled payment, you have resigned or have been terminated from the Firm because of misconduct, breach of Firm policies or rules, dishonesty, violation of laws or regulations, or substantial and continuing failure to perform employment duties or obligations satisfactorily. The bonus amount set forth above may be reduced in the event of an approved leave of absence during the applicable performance year.

(Contract at 1) (emphasis added).

4. The bonus provision in the Contract contained no stipulation as to Ortegon's active employment with LBI in order to maintain her eligibility to receive a bonus. Ortegon signed the Contract on January 16, 2007.

5. The Trustee has now objected to Ortegon's claim on the basis that her termination from LBI and its failure to pay her bonus did not constitute a breach of contract. Specifically, the Trustee articulated as its reason for objection to Ortegon's claim that: "The employment actions that are the subject of this claim were lawful, as claimant's employment was at will and in securing a job offer, claimant failed to disclose that she would require substantial time off to pursue a graduate degree in a different state." (Omnibus Objection at 20).

6. This Trustee's position, however, is contrary to LBI's own position regarding the rationale behind the termination of Ortegon, both as expressed internally in e-mails³ between the relevant individuals and through representations that LBI's counsel made in a written submission to the EEOC in 2008 responding to Ortegon's retaliation charge.⁴ Furthermore, Ortegon did in fact explicitly list her involvement in the EMBA program on her resume and in her application to the Encore Program, a recruitment program for LBI specifically targeting individuals who had taken time away from the financial services industry to resume their careers. Additionally, Ortegon provided an affidavit to the EEOC in connection with her charge of retaliation against LBI, in which she recounted speaking about her involvement in the EMBA program with LBI executives, including her hiring manager, throughout the interview process.⁵

7. Ortegon was accepted in to the EMBA program in March of 2006. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 2). She first contacted a LBI executive in May of 2006 to inquire about any opportunities in New York. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 3). On September 1, 2006, she met with Rebecca Hornstein (“Hornstein”), LBI’s Vice President of Diversity Lateral Recruiting, during which she discussed her participation in the EMBA program and “how the EMBA program was focused on Latin American markets and executives as it was based in Miami, and that it would be well-aligned with Lehman Brother’s interests.” (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 6). After the meeting, Hornstein told Ortegon that she would add her to the list of potential candidates for employment. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 10).

8. In late October 2006, Ortegon applied online to the Encore Program. Her application to the program was accepted, and she attended the program on November 8, 2006. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 10). On her application under her education, Ortegon noted that she was “beginning EMBA in January 2007 (once a month weekend).” (Letter at 14). Hornstein and Ortegon stayed in contact after the program, and Hornstein eventually informed Ortegon about an opportunity at LBI beginning in January or February of 2007. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 17). Ortegon began interviewing for the position in December of 2006, meeting with several senior level managers and executives at LBI. Ortegon discussed her enrollment in the EMBA program during these interviews. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 18). Furthermore, her involvement in the EMBA program was clearly listed as “Kellogg/Northwestern Executive MBA Winter 2007-Accepted” on her resume, which she provided to LBI. (Letter at 13).

9. Ortegon then met with Grimeh on December 20, 2006. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 19). They discussed at length LBI's plans to expand business in Brazil. Ortegon noted that this would work well with her EMBA program, which she described to him as a "monthly extended weekend Program based in Miami made up of a group of Latin American executives." (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 21). Ortegon resumed interviewing after the holidays and met with several LBI directors including "Stephen Vena, Managing Director of Operations, Gary Mandelblatt, Managing Director of Fixed Income, Scott Kimmel, Managing Director of Corporate Advisory/Fixed Income, Joseph Gentile, Managing Director of Finance/Product Control, Mary Pat Archer, Managing Director of Fixed Income, Roberto Moraes Emerging Marketing Sales for Brazil." (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 24).

10. She discussed her enrollment in the EMBA program as part of her educational background in each of these interviews, as well as providing her resume, which included a reference to the EMBA. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 24). Scott Kimmel ("Kimmel") specifically asked how Ortegon would perform her duties and attend the EMBA program. Ortegon responded that the program was designed for executives who work full time and that she was prepared to use vacation and personal days to attend. Kimmel expressed his approval and moved on to discuss her professional background. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 25).

11. On January 11, 2007, Grimeh called Ortegon to offer her the position. Grimeh and Ortegon made arrangements to meet before his planned trip to London the week of January 22, 2007. Ortegon reminded him that her EMBA program was beginning that same week and that it would make sense for Ortegon to travel directly to Brazil from Miami to meet with the team there. They agreed to meet on January 18, 2007 to discuss her schedule. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 30).

12. On January 16, 2007, Ortegon went into LBI's office to sign the Contract (which she did), and fill out pre-employment paperwork. She also provided her passport, which listed her maiden name Koveleskie rather than Ortegon, her married name. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 35). During the course of the day on January 16, Coppola inquired as to Ortegon's precise schedule for the EMBA program. Ortegon did not have the precise schedule available, but reiterated that she was willing to use personal and vacation days to ensure the arrangement worked for LBI. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 36).

13. On the same day, Ortegon inquired as to her ability to use personal and vacation days for the EMBA program because it was not in the information she had been provided during the pre-employment meeting and she wanted to be prepared to discuss specifics with Grimeh on January 18. Shari Kroningold, a LBI human resources employee, responded that employees don't typically take off immediately after they start but it was up to the manager to decide on scheduling issues. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 37). On January 17, 2007, Ortegon further discussed her EMBA schedule with Coppola and offered to defer the EMBA program if it was incompatible with her employment at LBI. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 40). Later that same day, they spoke again and Coppola stated that Grimeh was surprised that the EMBA program was starting the following week and that he wanted to meet with Ortegon to discuss her commitment to LBI. Ortegon informed Coppola that she had decided to defer her participation in the EMBA program to focus on LBI. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 43).

14. Ortegon met with Coppola and Grimeh the following day, January 18, 2006. Grimeh questioned why Ortegon did not talk enough about her involvement in the EMBA program. Ortegon reminded him that she discussed it during their interview on December 20, 2007 and when he called to offer her the job. He acknowledged that she had discussed it with him, but that he was busy and that he had forgotten about it. Ortegon, who had already offered to defer the program, apologized for any confusion and suggested they move on. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 45). She also emailed Coppola later that day, reiterating that she would “wait to do my EMBA when it works both for Lehman and for me.” (Emails at 15).

15. This was insufficient for LBI. Grimeh called Ortegon on January 19, 2007 to inform her that LBI was rescinding its offer. (Ortegon Aff. ¶ 48). She also received a letter, dated January 19, 2007, indicating that LBI was rescinding the offer.⁶

16. Ortegon’s resume and application to the Encore Program clearly reflect that LBI was informed that she was enrolled in the EMBA program. Furthermore an email from Mary Pat Archer (“Archer”), a LBI Managing Director who interviewed Ortegon to Coppola, who also interviewed Ortegon, confirms that she knew of Ortegon’s participation in the EMBA program. Archer states that she had the information about Ortegon’s enrollment in the EMBA program in her notes, but that she didn’t ask about the program specifically. (Emails at 5). Additionally, Archer stated in a separate email that LBI should pay for Ortegon’s tuition (Emails at 6). Coppola agreed with Archer, stating that LBI was paying “for the others,” indicating that LBI had experience dealing with executives involved in EMBA programs, and was presumably familiar with the timing and schedule of these types of programs. (Emails at 11).

17. Despite Ortegon’s efforts to accommodate LBI’s concerns about her availability, LBI decided to rescind its offer of employment. An email between Deborah Millstein (Head of Human Resources for Fixed Income, U.S.) and Pamela Tibbets (a LBI in-house attorney) reveals that LBI was concerned about “the candidates [sic] reliability/responsibility, despite Mary’s offer today to postpone her MBA program participation.” (Emails at 26).

⁶ The January 19, 2007 letter rescinding the job offer is attached as Exhibit E.
